TEDxDayton Volunteer Training 2013

In the spirit of ideas worth spreading, TED has created a program called TEDx. TEDx is a program of local, self-organized events that bring people together to share a TED-like experience. Our event is called TEDxDayton, where x = independently organized TED event. At our TEDxDayton event, TEDTalks video and live speakers will combine to spark deep discussion and connection in a small group. The TED Conference provides general guidance for the TEDx program, but individual TEDx events, including ours, are self-organized.

Volunteer Position: Snack Break 2-3:30pm

Main Duties: When the time for a break approaches it is your job to manage the distribution of the afternoon snack and assist Ushers and Inside Greeters with participant movement.

The crowd is going to be very large, and many people will want to not only get a snack, but possibly use the restroom as well. Be aware of the nearest restrooms at where you will be distributing the snacks. Encourage conversation with the attendees to get input of what they have seen so far throughout the program!

Tips:
Do not be timid! If you are not reminding people to remain quiet it could ruin the experience of the audience below. Remember that you are there to maintain, and if at all possible, to improve the quality of the experience for all.

Be enthusiastic! TEDxDayton is a great event and there will be many excited people in the audience. Have a smile on, and share your excitement to be there!

Don't hesitate to ask for help! You will be given your coordinators phone numbers, so if you come into a situation that you feel the need to reach one of us please do not hesitate.
